

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

Lease Excess Wear & Tear

End your lease on a high note

Protection for your leased vehicle

Part of the appeal of leasing a vehicle is that you can turn it in when your lease is over, but knowing that there may be unexpected charges at the end of the lease can make it less appealing. Lease Excess Wear & Tear coverage helps protect you against additional costs at the end of your lease and can provide a more worry-free driving experience.

Protection against

- Chipped paint and scratches
- Chipped windshield or windows
- Damaged wheels
- Exterior dents and dings
- Damaged headlamps, rear lamps, lenses, and fog lights
- Interior stains
